TAKE DOWN THE WALLS

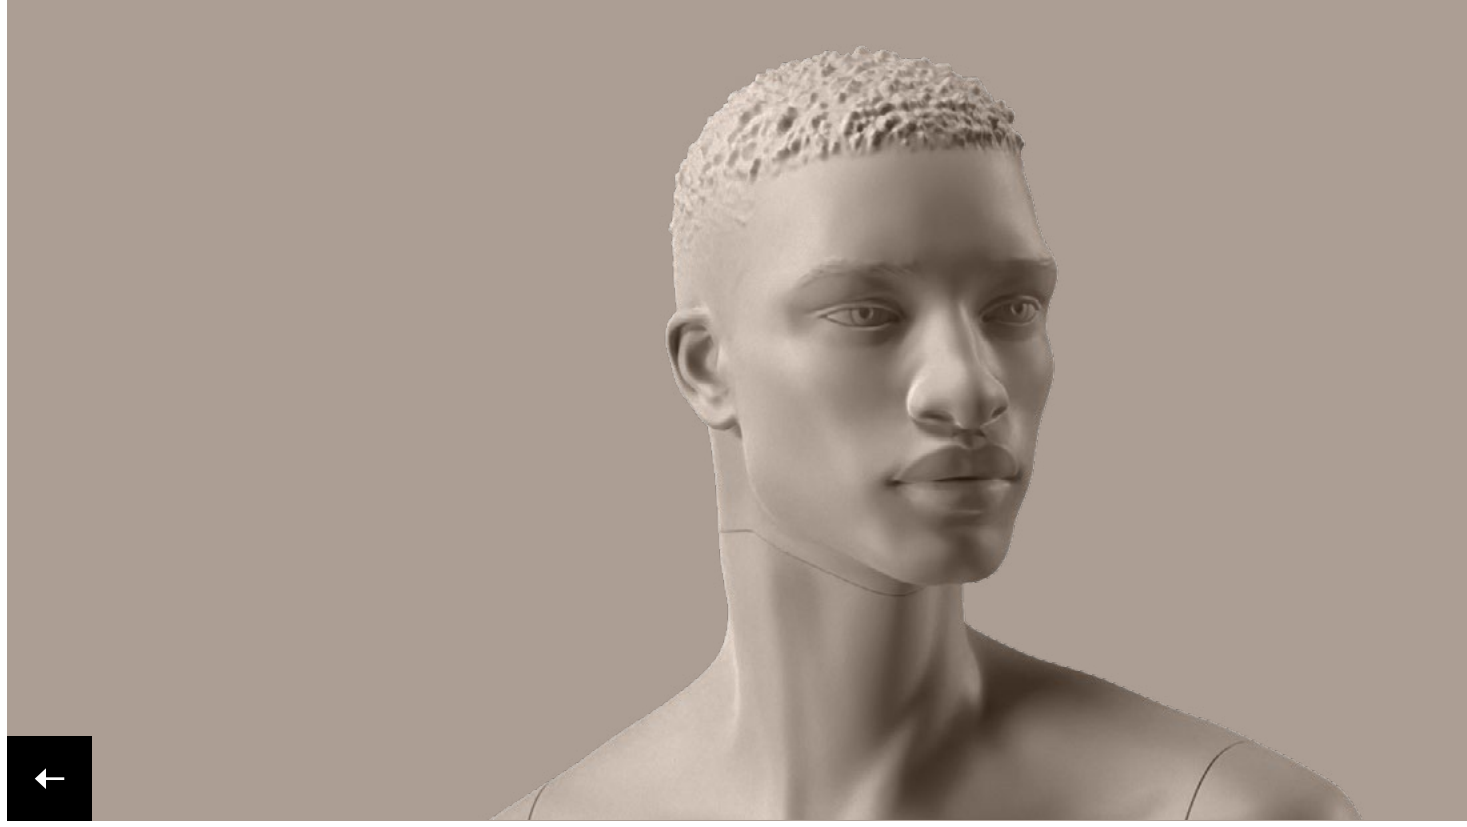

The unconscious biases instilled in our collective psyche by the archaic norms of society are fading. In today's fast changing world, everything that is long-established & origin associated is to be questioned. Fashion can be employed as a tool to change those assumptions.

A new era has begun, the new 'traditional' is introducing itself faster and faster. It's no longer a fantasy or an utopia but just a living right. The URBAN collection supports this change. Erasing outdated biases and changing the view of the windows in the streets are our mission.

We proudly introduce our new URBAN collection.
